Ok, great Ill be there)

Actually...any chance you would be up for dinner at Harbuzik in Podil at 7:30 p.m.? A few of us from the office are going there for a farewell dinner for Yuriy (he goes back to Japan tomorrow). It would be great for you to join us!

Otherwise, I could meet you after dinner somewhere downtown. Or before dinner somewhere between the Embassy and Podil. Does one of those options work?

Also, what else can I buy you? You should pick a few more things!

Thanks)))))) I can pick it up today - where is best for you?

2014-06-05 14:28 GMT+03:00 Zentos, Elisabeth F <zentosef@state.gov>:

Yes!!! I have stuff from the store! Although, bad news—they are out of ginger ale and root beer. I hope they'll get more in stock soon.

So I got you Oreos, Doritos, Cheetos, and mini Reeses peanut butter cups.

Anything else? Here are some additional items I could pick up if you'd like: pop-tarts, various American cereals, twizzlers, tortilla chips, salsa (although they may be out at the moment), cookie or cake mixes, pancake mix, chips (BBQ and sour cream and onion), granola bars, and peanut butter.

Should we meet sometime soon and I can pass it on? When is good for you?

Ok, thanks so much for looking into this. We'll see if we can expedite delivery from the U.S. somehow. I'll keep you updated.

Some where purchased in Irpin - mostly its overloaded by private consumers who then resell or give to the army.
the load per day is 150 vests.

Thanks, Andriy. Do you know if the Ukrainian government is purchasing vests from the factor in Irpin? Is that why it is overloaded? Just want to explain to Washington.

Thank you!

About the buletproof vests - we have a factory that makes them 5-6 level protection in Irpin - however the quality is not good and it is overloaded right now.

We know that US has a god buletproof vest called Skin of the Dragon.

Hi Andrii,

Sorry again for the delay. I have a request in for our Ambassador, which he should see when he returns to Kyiv from Poland this afternoon. I hope to have an answer tomorrow. Thanks for bearing with me!

Hi Andriy,

Sorry for my delay in responding. I think this is a good idea. I'm looking into it and will get back to you soon.

Hope you are having a good weekend! See you on Monday morning at the ASD Chollet meeting.

Best,
Liz

Remember we spoke about Antonov - could it be possible to arrange a meeting with the Ambassador and the President of Antonov Mr. Kiva, General Cunstroctor Mr. Bogdanov and Vice-President Mr. Kiva Jr.?
