Dear Ms. Moore:

We have made multiple requests that you appear for a transcribed interview before the Committee concerning serious allegations of abuse and misconduct within the senior leadership of the Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Your testimony is necessary to further our oversight. As we begin the 118th Congress, we write again to reiterate our outstanding request and ask that you immediately cooperate.

You have been on notice about our request for your testimony—and aware that this request is outstanding—for months. For your convenience, we have attached the letters dated September 29, 2022, and December 1, 2022.¹ To date, you have not complied with our request that you appear for a transcribed interview before the Committee. This obstruction must stop.

Accordingly, we reiterate our request that you appear promptly for a transcribed interview. The Committee is prepared to resort to compulsory process, if necessary, to obtain your testimony. Please contact Committee staff immediately to schedule your interview. If you are represented by private counsel, please ask your attorney to promptly contact Committee staff on your behalf.

The Committee on the Judiciary has legislative and oversight jurisdiction over the Department of Justice and the FBI pursuant to Rule X of the Rules of the House of Representatives.²

Dear Ms. Moore:

We are investigating serious allegations of abuse and misconduct within the senior leadership of the Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. During the course of this investigation, we have received protected whistleblower disclosures that the FBI is engaging in a “purge” of employees with conservative views by revoking their security clearances and indefinitely suspending these employees. Many of the formal notices for these adverse personnel actions have been signed by you. Recently, we received information suggesting you have retaliated against at least one whistleblower who has made protected disclosures to Congress. As we informed Director Christopher Wray, we take whistleblower retaliation seriously and we therefore require that you appear for a transcribed interview as soon as possible.

FBI whistleblowers have told the Committee that you have been involved with the security clearance revocations for those employees targeted for their conservative views. In addition, we understand that you have engaged in whistleblower retaliation and prohibited personnel practices. Under Title 5 of the United States Code, once a whistleblower makes a protected disclosure, an agency is prohibited from retaliating against the employee for that disclosure by taking or failing to take a personnel action.¹ We have advised Director Wray, as well as Attorney General Merrick Garland, that whistleblower disclosures to Congress are protected by law.² Your efforts to interfere with FBI employees who seek to expose the Bureau’s misconduct by communicating directly with Congress cannot be condoned.

Wray, Dir., Fed. Bureau of Investigation (Sept. 19, 2022).

Dear Ms. Moore:

We are investigating serious allegations of abuse and misconduct within the senior leadership of the Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. As we explained in our September 29, 2022, letter,¹ protected whistleblower disclosures suggest that the FBI is engaging in a “purge” of employees with conservative views by revoking their security clearances and indefinitely suspending these employees. You have signed many of the formal notices for these adverse personnel actions. We have also received information suggesting you have retaliated against at least one whistleblower who has made protected disclosures to Congress.

On November 18, 2022, nearly two months since our initial request, the FBI’s Office of Congressional Affairs responded with a generic letter that did not substantively address the allegations or alleviate our concerns.² Our request that you appear for a transcribed interview remains outstanding. Your testimony is necessary for our oversight, and you can be assured that the Committee will continue to pursue this matter into the 118th Congress, including by compulsory process if necessary.

We again reiterate our request that you appear promptly for a transcribed interview. Please contact Committee staff at (202) 225-6906 to schedule your transcribed interview. If you are represented by private counsel, we look forward to communicating with them shortly.
