Yes- in theory that's the way I would like to see it shake out--- BUT please keep this very confidential between us because nothing has been set in stone and there's still a lot of sensitivity around all of this both internally and externally. He hasn't made any decisions and this could all be changed overnight.

Morning. Thanks, it is absolutely fascinating.

My confidential notes from our meeting...Please let me know if I am off-base on anything:

1. School of Public Policy at University of Delaware.
  - Will be renamed with the VP. The Biden School of Public Policy (like G. Ford did). Concentration on domestic political science.
  - Of course, the University gains an infusion of prestige, money, notoriety, and professors.
  - University to raise all of the capital for the new center building on the quad.
  - Within the building will be a Vice Presidential Center or Library. First of its kind about studying of the Office of the Vice President [not just Biden].
2. The Biden Foundation in Wilmington, Delaware.
3. The Biden Institute of Foreign Relations at the University of Pennsylvania.
  - Focus on foreign policy.
  - In addition to the institute at U of Penn, the school has an existing office in DC that will be expanded to house a DC office for VP Biden (and Mike, Hunter and Steve?). Operates like The Clinton Global Initiative without the money raise.
4. Wealth Creation.

Hunter,

Thank you for taking the time. It was good to see you and I hope you made it to Union Station on schedule!

I cannot express how much I appreciate all of the clarity you brought forth today. It makes and will make a great deal of difference as we proceed with the exploration of working together.

Surfing the Internet from 30,000 feet, is it A.T. Kearney "America@250" that you mentioned?

Have a good weekend,

CG
