Dear MPS Families,

Late yesterday, Moore Public Schools learned that a virtual Southmoore student was arrested. The Department of Justice states he is charged as a co-conspirator, "...for conspiring to conduct an Election Day terror attack in the United States..."

Multiple local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies are involved in this active investigation. All questions should be directed to them.

We are grateful for our effective agency partnerships and for the swift and efficient action that our law enforcement agencies take to keep our schools, community, and state safe.

For statements by the Department of Justice, Gov. Kevin Stitt, and Sen. James Lankford visit:

At the time of this statement, and pending the law enforcement investigation, other students in the home are not at school. MPS will cooperate and support the investigation in any way we can.

We encourage our community and students to remain vigilant concerning the safety and security of our district and schools.

Sincerely,

Dr. Robert Romines, Superintendent
