

DE FACTO MASS AMNESTY: HOW THE BIDEN-HARRIS ADMINISTRATION ABUSED TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS TO SHIELD HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF ILLEGAL ALIENS FROM DEPORTATION

Interim Staff Report of the Committee on the Judiciary and Subcommittee on Immigration Integrity, Security, and Enforcement

U.S. House of Representatives

March 3, 2025

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

After incentivizing more than 10 million illegal aliens to arrive at the southwest border<sup>1</sup> and releasing nearly 6 million of those aliens into U.S. communities,<sup>2</sup> the Biden-Harris Administration went even further to entrench its open-borders agenda. By greatly expanding the scope of populations eligible for Temporary Protected Status (TPS), including through new designations, redesignations, and extensions of prior TPS designations, the Biden-Harris Administration attempted to indefinitely protect from deportation hundreds of thousands of aliens from certain countries.<sup>3</sup>

The Immigration and Nationality Act authorizes the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), after consultation with other appropriate agencies, to designate a foreign state or part thereof for TPS.<sup>4</sup> The Secretary may then grant TPS to eligible nationals of the designated foreign state or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in that state.<sup>5</sup> TPS permits aliens, regardless of immigration status, from countries in which "there is an ongoing armed conflict within the state" or "there has been an earthquake, flood, drought, epidemic, or other environmental disaster in the state resulting in a substantial, but temporary, disruption of living conditions in the area affected" to remain in the United States during the designated period.<sup>6</sup> By law, and after a review of the circumstances, if the Secretary determines that the foreign country no longer meets the conditions for the TPS designation, the Secretary must terminate the designation.<sup>7</sup>

What was intended by Congress to be a temporary status has become, over time, a permanent, automatically renewed designation, with some countries being designated for TPS for decades despite changed country conditions. The Biden-Harris Administration vastly expanded this de facto amnesty to hundreds of thousands of new aliens, many of whom are in the country illegally.<sup>8</sup> New data uncovered by the Committee on the Judiciary and its Subcommittee on Immigration Integrity, Security, and Enforcement reveal the scope of the abuse of TPS wrought by the Biden-Harris Administration:

- As of January 22, 2025, there are 1,417,265 million aliens, from 16 different countries, who have been granted TPS.<sup>9</sup>
- The number of aliens with TPS nearly quadrupled during the Biden-Harris Administration, adding 1,006,859 aliens in just four years. By comparison, at the end of the first Trump Administration, there were just 410,406 TPS beneficiaries from 10 countries.<sup>10</sup>
- Roughly 725,000 aliens with TPS, or more than half of all aliens granted TPS, initially entered the U.S. during the Biden-Harris Administration.<sup>11</sup> The vast majority of these aliens are nationals of Haiti and Venezuela, likely incentivized to enter the country due to the Biden-Harris Administration's open-borders policies.<sup>12</sup>
- About 280,000 aliens with TPS were already present in the United States and became newly eligible during the Biden-Harris Administration due to its designations and redesignations of TPS countries.
- Prior to the Biden-Harris Administration, there were no Venezuela TPS beneficiaries, as Venezuela was not designated for TPS. In 2021, and again in 2023, the Biden-Harris Administration designated Venezuela for TPS.<sup>13</sup> By April 2022, there were 63,800 Venezuela TPS beneficiaries.<sup>14</sup> As of January 22, 2025, there were a staggering 614,044 Venezuelans with TPS, nearly half of all TPS beneficiaries.<sup>15</sup>
- The vast majority of Venezuela TPS beneficiaries were not initially admitted to the U.S. with a valid visa.<sup>16</sup> Instead, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) data show that roughly 586,000 aliens with TPS, or more than 95 percent of all Venezuela TPS beneficiaries, were illegally paroled into the country, entered the country without inspection, provided the U.S. government with little or no information at all about the nature of their entry into the country, or remain in the U.S. having filed an application to claim, but who are statistically unlikely to qualify for, asylum.<sup>17</sup>

- Despite the fact that Venezuela has never been enrolled in the Visa Waiver Program (VWP), the Biden-Harris Administration granted TPS to nearly 400 Venezuela TPS beneficiaries who were classified as having entered the U.S. pursuant to VWP.<sup>18</sup> It is unclear why the Biden-Harris Administration classified these aliens as having entered the country through a program that did not exist.
- The Biden-Harris Administration designated Haiti for TPS in 2021,<sup>19</sup> after the first Trump Administration's attempt to end Haiti's initial 2010 TPS designation was held up in the courts.<sup>20</sup> As of January 2021, there were 55,000 Haiti TPS beneficiaries.<sup>21</sup> Today, by comparison, there are 342,360 Haiti TPS beneficiaries, or nearly one-quarter of all current TPS beneficiaries.<sup>22</sup>
- Like Venezuela TPS beneficiaries, most Haiti TPS beneficiaries did not enter the U.S. pursuant to a valid visa.<sup>23</sup> Roughly 312,000 Haiti TPS beneficiaries, or more than 91 percent of all Haiti TPS beneficiaries, were illegally paroled into the country, entered without inspection, entered the country having provided the U.S. government little or no information at all about the nature of their entry into the country, or remain in the country having filed an application to claim, but who are statistically unlikely to qualify for, asylum.<sup>24</sup>
- At the end of the first Trump Administration, there were 248,083 El Salvador TPS beneficiaries, or roughly 60 percent of all aliens granted TPS.<sup>25</sup> Today, there are 231,796 El Salvador TPS beneficiaries, but the total population of El Salvador TPS beneficiaries represents just 16 percent of all aliens granted TPS.<sup>26</sup>
- The Biden-Harris Administration funneled hundreds of thousands of aliens it illegally paroled into the country into TPS in an attempt to indefinitely shield them from deportation. Nearly 200,000 aliens granted TPS initially entered the U.S. pursuant to a grant of parole, up from just 1,700 as of the end of the first Trump Administration.  $^{\rm 27}$

- Nearly 150 aliens who entered the United States under illegal categorical parole programs were granted TPS from a country other than the country of nationality they indicated when they were granted parole.<sup>28</sup> In other words, the Biden-Harris Administration likely granted TPS to nearly 150 aliens who defrauded the U.S. government at the time of their initial parole, at the time of their TPS application, or both.<sup>29</sup>
- In the Biden-Harris Administration's rush to protect vast swaths of aliens, including illegal aliens, from removal from the United States, the Biden-Harris Administration failed to verify basic information about TPS beneficiaries. For example, for hundreds of thousands of aliens granted TPS, USCIS has little to no information about the nature of their entry into the country.<sup>30</sup>
- The U.S. government has no idea how many TPS beneficiaries are currently living in the United States. According to USCIS, the agency lacks data to show how many aliens with TPS currently live in the U.S., how many have adjusted to another immigration status, or how many have been removed from or otherwise left the country.<sup>31</sup>

The Biden-Harris Administration's destruction of our border security and immigration enforcement apparatus will have lasting, dangerous effects on the safety and well-being of American citizens. The Committee and Subcommittee will continue to conduct oversight to uncover the full extent to which the Biden-Harris Administration broke our immigration system. This oversight will inform legislative reforms from House Republicans to secure the border, improve immigration enforcement, eliminate the incentives driving illegal immigration, and prioritize the safety and security of Americans.

PRIOR ADMINISTRATIONS HAVE ABUSED TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS FOR DECADES

Section 244(b)(l) of the INA authorizes the DHS Secretary, after consultation with other Executive Branch agencies, to designate a foreign state or part thereof for TPS.<sup>32</sup> The Secretary may then grant TPS to eligible nationals of the designated foreign state or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in that state.<sup>33</sup> TPS permits aliens, regardless of immigration status, from countries where "there is an ongoing armed conflict within the state" or "there has been an earthquake, flood, drought, epidemic, or other environmental disaster in the state resulting in a substantial, but temporary, disruption of living conditions in the area affected" to remain in the United States during the designated period.<sup>34</sup> By law, and after a review of the circumstances, if the Secretary determines that the foreign country no longer meets the conditions for the TPS designation, the Secretary must terminate the designation.<sup>35</sup> Aliens who are granted TPS also receive employment authorization.<sup>36</sup>

What Congress intended as a temporary status for aliens who fall under defined, limited circumstances has morphed into a permanent, automatically renewed designation, with some countries being designated for TPS for decades.<sup>37</sup> For instance, Honduras was initially designated for TPS in 1999 due to Hurricane Mitch, which struck the country in October 1998.<sup>38</sup> Similarly, El Salvador was initially designated in March 2001 based on a series of earthquakes.<sup>39</sup> Both countries are still designated for TPS.<sup>40</sup>

Consistent with the statute, the DHS Secretary during the first Trump Administration determined that the temporary conditions existing at the time of the initial TPS designation were no longer in effect for Sudan, Nicaragua, Haiti, and El Salvador and announced plans to terminate those TPS designations.<sup>41</sup> Despite the DHS findings, a nationwide federal district court injunction prohibited DHS from ending TPS for nationals of these countries.<sup>42</sup> While the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit later vacated the district court's injunction, "the appellate order [was] not in effect because the Ninth Circuit ha[d] not issued its 'mandate' to the federal district court to carry out the order as the plaintiffs' petition for rehearing en banc remains pending."<sup>43</sup> The Biden-Harris Administration subsequently published a notice in the Federal Register continuing TPS benefits for individuals subject to the enjoined case.<sup>44</sup> Therefore, these TPS holders continue to live and work in the U.S. under a de facto amnesty.

Once TPS holders have been in the United States for many years, Democrats claim that it is immoral to terminate TPS and require them to return home. In 2021, House Democrats introduced and passed through the House of Representatives legislation to provide green cards to TPS holders.<sup>45</sup> In addition, activist judges have ensured a path to citizenship for certain TPS holders—even those who came to the U.S. illegally—thereby transforming what Congress intended as a temporary program into a permanent immigration benefit.<sup>46</sup>

THE BIDEN-HARRIS ADMINISTRATION GRANTED TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS TO ONE MILLION ALIENS

According to new data obtained by the Committee and Subcommittee, as of January 22, 2025, there were a total of 1,417,265 million aliens, from 16 different countries, with TPS.<sup>47</sup>

In just four years of the Biden-Harris Administration, the number of aliens with Temporary Protected Status nearly quadrupled, from roughly 400,000 beneficiaries to more than 1.4 million.

Specifically, there were:

- 11,685 Afghanistan TPS beneficiaries;
- 3,740 Burma TPS beneficiaries;
- 4,165 Cameroon TPS beneficiaries;
- 231,796 El Salvador TPS beneficiaries;
- 4,506 Ethiopia TPS beneficiaries;
- 342,360 Haiti TPS beneficiaries;
- 72,750 Honduras TPS beneficiaries;
- 12,865 Nepal TPS beneficiaries;

- 4,027 Nicaragua TPS beneficiaries;
- 736 Somalia TPS beneficiaries;
- 225 South Sudan TPS beneficiaries;
- 1,944 Sudan TPS beneficiaries;
- 5,931 Syria TPS beneficiaries;
- 103,754 Ukraine TPS beneficiaries;
- 614,044 Venezuela TPS beneficiaries; and
- 2,737 Yemen TPS beneficiaries.<sup>48</sup>

At the end of the first Trump Administration, there were just 410,406 TPS beneficiaries from 10 countries.<sup>49</sup> In just four short years, that figure increased by 1,006,859, thanks to the Biden-Harris Administration's new designations and redesignations for several countries such as Burma in May 2021, Ukraine in April 2022, Afghanistan in May 2022, Cameroon in June 2022, Ethiopia in December 2022, Venezuela in 2021 and 2023, Haiti in August 2024, and Lebanon in October 2024.<sup>50</sup>

The Biden-Harris Administration granted TPS to more than 1 million aliens, hundreds of thousands of whom entered the U.S. illegally.

(ofo)

In fact, 726,058 TPS holders, or more than half of all current TPS beneficiaries, were not even residing in the United States until after President Biden took office.<sup>51</sup> These aliens were likely incentivized to travel to the U.S. at least in part by the Biden-Harris Administration's open-borders policies. This new group of TPS holders let in by the Biden-Harris Administration includes:

- 11,451 Afghanistan TPS beneficiaries;
- 2,140 Burma TPS beneficiaries;
- 1,325 Cameroon TPS beneficiaries;
- 21,252 El Salvador TPS beneficiaries;
- 3,140 Ethiopia TPS beneficiaries;
- 236,798 Haiti TPS beneficiaries;
- 4,662 Honduras TPS beneficiaries;
- 10 Lebanon TPS beneficiaries;

- 287 Somalia TPS beneficiaries;
- 73 South Sudan TPS beneficiaries;
- 934 Sudan TPS beneficiaries;
- 662 Syria TPS beneficiaries;
- 93,382 Ukraine TPS beneficiaries;
- 347,565 Venezuela TPS beneficiaries; and
- 901 Yemen TPS beneficiaries.<sup>52</sup>

725,000 TPS beneficiaries, or more than half of all aliens granted TPS, entered the U.S. on Joe Biden and Kamala Harris's watch, likely incentivized by their open-borders policies.

These aliens, hundreds of thousands of whom initially entered the country illegally,<sup>53</sup> have resettled in communities across the United States, including Springfield, Ohio;<sup>54</sup> Charleroi, Pennsylvania;<sup>55</sup> and Logansport, Indiana.<sup>56</sup>

The extent to which the Biden-Harris Administration abused TPS can be seen in the number of El Salvador TPS beneficiaries over time. During the first Trump Administration, DHS sought to eliminate TPS for El Salvador.<sup>57</sup> At the time, El Salvador had the largest population of TPS beneficiaries—248,083 beneficiaries, representing roughly 60 percent of all aliens granted TPS at that time.<sup>58</sup> Today, there are 231,796 El Salvador TPS beneficiaries, but the total population of El Salvador TPS beneficiaries represents just 16 percent of all aliens granted TPS.<sup>59</sup>

MOST TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS BENEFICIARIES ENTER THE COUNTRY ILLEGALLY

The vast majority of TPS beneficiaries initially enter the United States illegally. As the Pew Research Center has noted, "nearly all immigrants with TPS are in the U.S. without authorization," and only "a small number may be in the U.S. on a valid temporary visa, especially from countries granted TPS in the past few years."<sup>60</sup>

Most TPS beneficiaries enter the U.S. illegally.
For example, of the roughly 615,000 Venezuela TPS beneficiaries, 586,000, or more than 95 percent,
<ul> <li>were illegally paroled into the country,</li> <li>entered the country without inspection,</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>provided the U.S. government with little or no information at all about the nature of their entry into the country, or</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>remain in the U.S. having made a claim for asylum.</li> </ul>

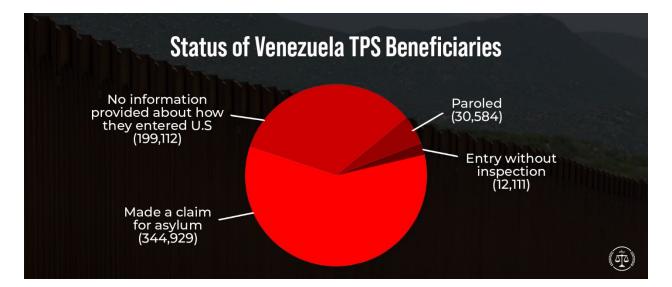

Recent data from USCIS support this assertion. For example, out of the 614,044 Venezuela TPS beneficiaries,<sup>61</sup> such aliens' status includes:

- Nearly 350,000 beneficiaries who filed an application to claim, but are statistically unlikely to qualify for, asylum;
- Nearly 200,000 beneficiaries granted TPS even though USCIS had little to no information about the nature of their entry into the country. Specifically, 126,420 such beneficiaries were classified as "null," which according to USCIS, "reflects an unknown value," 69,593 were classified as having a status of "pending classification code," and 3,099 had the status "unknown, none, or not reported";
- Roughly 30,000 beneficiaries that were paroled into the country, largely via illegal categorical parole programs; and
- Roughly 12,000 beneficiaries that were classified as "entry without inspection" in other words, these aliens were likely "gotaways" that evaded Customs and Border Protection (CBP) at the U.S. border.<sup>62</sup>

The above reflects the status of more than 95 percent of all current Venezuela TPS beneficiaries.<sup>63</sup> By comparison, very few Venezuela TPS beneficiaries entered the United States on a valid visa. For example, according to the same USCIS data, just 4,666 Venezuelan TPS beneficiaries were classified as having been admitted pursuant to a temporary visitor visa.<sup>64</sup> Curiously, 392 aliens granted Venezuela TPS during the Biden-Harris Administration were classified as having entered the U.S. pursuant to the Visa Waiver Program (VWP), despite the fact that Venezuela has never been enrolled in the VWP.<sup>65</sup>

Within days of President Trump taking office, Venezuela has agreed to begin receiving removals of Venezuelan nationals, a changed circumstance that partly undercuts the justification for Venezuela TPS.<sup>66</sup> On February 3, 2025, DHS Secretary Noem vacated former Secretary Mayorkas's extension of the 2023 TPS designation for Venezuela.<sup>67</sup> In addition, on February 5, 2025, DHS terminated the underlying 2023 TPS designation for Venezuela, noting that allowing these aliens to remain in the U.S. pursuant to TPS would be contrary to the national interest.<sup>68</sup>

In addition to the Biden-Harris Administration's abuse of TPS for Venezuelans, its openborders policies also resulted in a vast expansion of the number of Haiti TPS beneficiaries. Of the 342,360 current Haiti TPS beneficiaries,<sup>69</sup> such aliens' status includes:

- Nearly 110,000 beneficiaries about whom USCIS has little or no information regarding the nature of their entry, including 64,966 classified as "null," 35,653 with a status described as "pending classification code," and 8,470 classified as "unknown, none, or not reported";
- More than 95,000 beneficiaries that were paroled into the country, largely through illegal categorical parole programs;
- Nearly 90,000 beneficiaries who filed an application to claim, but are statistically unlikely to qualify for, asylum; and
- Nearly 20,000 beneficiaries that were classified as "entry without inspection."<sup>70</sup>

The aforementioned reflects the status of more than 91 percent of all Haiti TPS beneficiaries,<sup>71</sup> demonstrating that very few such Haiti TPS beneficiaries entered the country legally. On February 24, 2024, Secretary Noem partially vacated the Biden-Harris Administration's June 2024 decision to extend Haiti TPS to the statutory maximum of 18 months, reducing the period to 12 months.<sup>72</sup> In the notice, Secretary Noem noted the previous Administration's failure to meaningfully consider whether "permitting [an] ever-increasing population of Haitian TPS recipients, particularly those who entered the country unlawfully, to remain temporarily in the United States is [] contrary to the U.S. national interest."<sup>73</sup>

Overall, USCIS data indicate that more than 460,000 aliens from 16 countries have been granted TPS despite USCIS recording little to no information at all about the nature of their entry into the country.<sup>74</sup> This includes 283,323 TPS beneficiaries whose status is classified as "null," 145,206 aliens classified as "pending classification code," and 34,464 such aliens with a status described as "unknown, none, or not reported."<sup>75</sup> In addition, nearly 200,000 aliens have been granted TPS despite admitting to entering the country without inspection.<sup>76</sup> Entry without inspection generally refers to an alien who did not present themselves for inspection at a port of entry, instead evading CBP officials and escaping into the country illegally.<sup>77</sup> That figure includes 109,315 aliens granted El Salvador TPS; 29,216 granted Honduras TPS; 19,032 granted Haiti TPS; and 12,111 granted Venezuela TPS.<sup>78</sup>

The Biden-Harris Administration funneled hundreds of thousands of aliens it illegally paroled into the country into TPS in an attempt to indefinitely shield them from deportation. As of January 22, 2025, nearly 200,000 aliens granted TPS initially entered the country based on a grant of parole, including:

- 58,923 Ukraine TPS beneficiaries;
- 30,584 Venezuela TPS beneficiaries; and
- 1 Yemen TPS beneficiary.<sup>79</sup>

This total of nearly 200,000 aliens is up from just 1,753 paroled aliens granted TPS as of January 19, 2021, a staggering increase of 187,810 in just four short years of the Biden-Harris Administration.<sup>80</sup>

THE BIDEN-HARRIS ADMINISTRATION FAILED TO STOP OBVIOUS CASES OF TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS FRAUD

At the same time that the Biden-Harris Administration drastically increased the scope of parole and TPS abuse, it failed to curb obvious instances of fraud, potentially in its rush to prevent the Trump Administration from being able to remove vast swaths of illegal aliens. USCIS data reveal multiple cases of aliens who first entered the country through illegal categorical parole programs claiming one nationality and were later rewarded with a grant of TPS claiming another nationality.<sup>81</sup>

For example, according to USCIS data, 99 Afghan nationals who initially entered the U.S. as parolees through Operation Allies Refuge, a parole program that is limited to nationals of Afghanistan, were later granted Haiti TPS despite not being nationals of Haiti.<sup>82</sup>

99 Afghan nationals who initially entered the U.S. as parolees through Operation Allies Refuge, a parole program created by the Biden-Harris Administration that is limited to Afghan nationals, were later granted Haiti TPS despite not being nationals of Haiti.

Other instances include:

• 11 aliens granted Venezuela TPS who were classified as parolees under the Ukrainian humanitarian parole program;

- 11 aliens granted Ukraine TPS classified as parolees under the Venezuela humanitarian parole program;
- Five aliens granted Venezuela TPS classified as parolees under the Nicaragua humanitarian parole program;
- Five aliens granted Venezuela TPS classified as parolees under the Operation Allies Refuge humanitarian parole program for nationals of Afghanistan;
- Four aliens granted Haiti TPS classified as "Mass Migration Cuban Parolees";
- Three aliens granted Nicaragua TPS classified as "Mass Migration Cuban Parolees";
- Three aliens granted Haiti TPS classified as parolees pursuant to the Venezuela humanitarian parole program;
- One alien granted Haiti TPS classified as a parolee pursuant to the Cuba humanitarian parole program;

- One alien granted Haiti TPS classified as a parolee pursuant to the Ukrainian humanitarian parole program;
- One alien granted Ukraine TPS classified as a parolee pursuant to the Venezuela humanitarian parole program;
- One alien granted Venezuela TPS classified as a parolee pursuant to the Haiti humanitarian parole program;
- One alien granted Honduras TPS classified as a "Mass Migration Cuban Parolee";
- One alien granted Haiti TPS classified as a parolee pursuant to the Venezuelan humanitarian parole program; and
- One alien granted El Salvador TPS classified as a "Mass Migration Cuban Parolee."<sup>83</sup>

As such, at least 148 aliens likely defrauded the U.S. government, either upon their initial entry into the U.S. under a parole program for which they did not qualify because they were not a national of the requisite country, or later when they applied for TPS for a country of which they were not a national or were otherwise unqualified for.<sup>84</sup> In addition to fraud related to illegal categorical parole programs, six aliens granted TPS had a status described as "suspected document fraud," including one alien granted Ethiopia TPS, two granted Haiti TPS, one granted Honduras TPS, and two granted Venezuela TPS.<sup>85</sup>

CONCLUSION

After four years of rampant fraud and abuse with respect to immigration benefits and relief under the Biden-Harris Administration, it will be no small task to restore integrity to the immigration system. By vacating and terminating the 2023 Venezuela designation, the Trump Administration and Secretary Noem took a critical first step in doing just that. However, far more work is needed to root out fraud, end TPS designations that violate the statute and thus are no longer in the interest of the American people, and institute appropriate reforms to ensure such abuse can never again be inflicted on the country by a future open-borders Administration. Congress has a critical role to play in ensuring these reforms are made on a permanent basis and disapproving of actions that are not in accordance with current law or in the best interest of U.S. citizens. The Committee on the Judiciary and the Subcommittee on Immigration Integrity, Security, and Enforcement will continue to conduct vigorous oversight to inform legislative reforms to our immigration system.
